

TIM HARP
ASST. HEAD COACH (DEFENSE) / LINEBACKERS

Tim grew up in La Junta, Colorado and went on to play Junior College football at New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, NM. He later transferred to Mesa College (currently Colorado Mesa University) in Grand Junction and played offensive guard under Bob Cortese. During his time at Mesa the Mavs played in the 1982 National Championship game and coached in the 83 game as the defensive line coach. Both teams have been inducted into the Colorado Mesa Hall of Honor and the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Hall of Fame.

Tim's coaching career has included college, high school and little league. He was the Defensive Coordinator at Adams State University when he first met Frank Ybarra who was on the staff at Northglenn High School.

Tim has been a high school position coach, defensive coordinator and head coach. He got out of coaching for several years to become a high school administrator and athletic director. He went back to teaching and devoted his time to being a dad to his son Austin who was fortunate enough to play on the 2012 Lakewood High School football team that went to the state championship. After Austin graduated Tim returned to football at the only place he wanted to coach... Horizon with Frank Ybarra.

He is married to his wife Liz who is also a teacher in Jeffco. Besides Austin they have a daughter, Sarah who lives in Paducah, Kentucky with her husband Paul and son Jackson.
