

FRANK YBARRA, HEAD COACH / QB'S

Frank is a native of Sterling, Illinois. He moved to Northglenn, Colorado at the end of 1978. He is a 1985 graduate of Northglenn High School where he participated in football and powerlifting. During his time at Northglenn the Norse won the 1984 Colorado State Football Championship and numerous Team Powerlifting Championships.

Coach Ybarra has his Bachelor's Degree in Mathematics from Metro State and his Master's Degree from the University of Colorado at Denver.

Coach Ybarra's coaching career began two years after graduating as he was hired at Northglenn High School in 1986 to be a Sophomore Team Assistant Coach under Head Coach Dan Gallas. That 1986 Northglenn staff included 5 future head coaches Scott Gallas, Matt Craddock, Matt Brothers, Ron Woitalewicz, and Coach Ybarra. Coach Ybarra was the Varsity Linebackers/Head JV coach at Northglenn from 1990 - 1991. In 1992 Coach Ybarra was named the Defensive Coordinator at Northglenn and held that position until 2003. The Norse won 5 Front Range League Titles from 1992 - 2003 and played in the 1993 State Championship. In 2004 Coach Ybarra was named the Head Football Coach at Horizon High School and has coached Linebackers, Defensive Line, and Quarterbacks while at Horizon. While at Horizon, the Hawks have won 2 Front Range League Titles and have placed 2nd 3 times. The Hawks have been in the Colorado State Playoffs 10 of 13 years under Coach Ybarra.

He is married to his wife Nicole. They have two daughters, Mahryssa (2012 Horizon Graduate) and Alexis.